

THE LITURGY OF GOOD FRIDAY

THE PASSION ACCORDING TO JOHN

MARCH 29, 2024 † 12:00 P.M. & 6:30 P.M.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH † NORTHFIELD, MINNESOTA

OUR WORSHIP TODAY

At the heart of the Good Friday liturgy is the passion according to John, which proclaims Jesus as a triumphant king who reigns from the cross. (For more on the gospel reading, see page 6.) The ancient title for this day—the triumph of the cross—reminds us that the church gathers not to mourn this day but to celebrate Christ’s life-giving passion and to find strength and hope in the tree of life. In the ancient bidding prayer we offer petitions for all the world for whom Christ died.

GATHERING IN GOD’S PRESENCE

The assembly gathers in silence.

Prelude — “Ah, Holy Jesus”

Helmut Walcha

*Prayer of the Day

☐ Almighty God, look with loving mercy on your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, to be given over to the hands of sinners, and to suffer death on the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

☑ Amen.

Reading — Isaiah 52:13—53:12

<sup>13</sup>See, my servant shall prosper; he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high.

<sup>14</sup>Just as there were many who were astonished at him—so marred was his appearance, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of mortals—<sup>15</sup>so he shall startle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them they shall see, and that which they had not heard they shall contemplate.

<sup>53:1</sup>Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed? <sup>2</sup>For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. <sup>3</sup>He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account.

<sup>4</sup>Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. <sup>5</sup>But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. <sup>6</sup>All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

<sup>7</sup>He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. <sup>8</sup>By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. <sup>9</sup>They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. <sup>10</sup>Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the LORD shall prosper. <sup>11</sup>Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. <sup>12</sup>Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

OUR GOSPEL READING

It has been the tradition of the lectionary to read the Gospel of John for the Great Three Days. This gospel contains anti-Jewish rhetoric that has been used to demonize Jews, seeing them as the puppet masters in control of Pilate and responsible for the death of Jesus. We repent of and stand against this rhetoric, which misrepresents our Jewish siblings and history itself.

Contemporary readers are called to wrestle with the ways John downplays the role of the Roman empire in Jesus' crucifixion. Jesus could not have been crucified by any authority other than the occupying government of Rome. Crucifixion was a punishment inflicted upon many Jews and others who were seen to be a threat to imperial power and order. Whatever role religious authorities had in turning Jesus over to the Romans, they were not solely responsible for his death.

In the words of the hymnwriter, Good Friday calls us not to point a finger at "who killed Jesus" but instead to confess: "I it was denied thee. I crucified thee." (ELW No. 349, "Ah, Holy Jesus")
